 Portsmouth Invitational Tournament

Amida Brimah: 16 points, 2 rebounds (2 off, 0 def), 1 assists, 1 turnover, 0 steals, 3 block, 8-10 FGs, 0-0 3PTs, 0-0 FTs in 22 min

Report:

- (+) Very vocal leader/apparent passion and intensity
- (+) Cognizant of defensive position – primed to shot block
- (+) Athletic rebounder
- (+) Good zone defender/secondary defender – comes to help and highly effective blocker
- (+) Decent jumper, though not used much
- (-) Relies on athleticism too much – not physical down low
- (-) Tends to be outmuscled on the block
- (-) Not a good man-to-man defender – beaten on isolation
- (-) Needs to work on hands
- (-) Offensive game limited to put-backs and dunks

Summary:

Brimah has the body and athleticism to become a very solid defender. He is very active on defense and very in-tune with the game, constantly barking commands and injecting his passion into the game. His athleticism carries his game, allowing him to be an explosive rebounder and shot blocker. However, that same athleticism tends to draw him away from contact and physicality. He is beaten on the low post and on drives. Brimah seems to want to approach an established matchup and use his athleticism as a secondary/help defender to block shots and get rebounds. He is efficient around the rim in regards to put-backs and dunks, however, his offensive game is limited to just that. His rawness can be an asset, for his athleticism is his signature.
